DIOCESAN EXECUTIVE OFFICER

THE VEN. WAYNE VARLEY
Diocesan Executive Officer

Archdeacon Wayne Varley was appointed Diocesan Executive Officer for the Diocese of Ontario in March 2006. Ordained deacon in 1987, and priest in 1988, Wayne Served in parish ministry in Christ Church, Belleville as Assistant Curate and Incumbent in the parishes of Kitley and Barriefield. Wayne has over the years served the Diocese on several committees and task forces in support of diocesan ministry. He is married to Nancy and is the father to Emily, Laura, Andrew & Christopher. Interests include supporting his beloved Buffalo Sabres, golf and the occasional blended scotch. Wayne worked with others at stewardship education in parish ministry and now as DEO, and accepts stewardship to be all the ways in which we respond to God by taking care of that which is entrusted to us, ourselves, relationships, church, resources and Christian faith.
