

I have always hoped and prayed that the Anglican Church of Canada would become more inclusive. As a 75-year-old happily married heterosexual Anglican via an adult baptism at age 21, I hope and pray that the upcoming General Synod will approve the proposed changes to the marriage canon.

Thank-you for this opportunity for my personal input, which you may share anywhere.

Jean Gower
St. George's Cathedral
Kingston, ON